

JUST WATER

SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT AND ENVIRONMENTAL PEACEMAKING
IN THE MIDDLE EAST

A conversation with Gidon Bromberg,
Israeli Co-director of Friends of the Earth Middle East
(FoEME)

Co-sponsored by the Center for Global Affairs, CGA Peacebuilding and Conflict Transformation (PACT), and the Outward Bound Center for Peacebuilding

Thursday, February 23, 7.30 - 8.30 pm
Center for Global Affairs
15 Barclay Street
(between Broadway and Church Streets)

Friends of the Earth Middle East engages Israelis, Palestinians, and Jordanians in collaborative efforts to promote water justice, sustainable development, and environmental peacemaking in the region. It is jointly managed by co-directors with offices in Tel Aviv, Bethlehem, and Amman. Join Israeli co-director Gidon Bromberg for a conversation moderated by CGA adjunct instructor Naira Musallam on the potential of collaboration as well as its challenges -- and the implications for environmental peacemaking globally.

Click here to RSVP
(Or visit <http://bit.ly/justwater>)

FOR MORE DETAILS, EMAIL INFO@OUTWARDBOUNDPEACE.ORG
LEARN MORE ABOUT FOEME AT WWW.FOEME.ORG